

Air Unit Customized Products

Overview

CKD customizes all air unit combinations.

Allows vertical module connections, which are not available with customized units.

Features

(1) Unrestricted in vertical/horizontal directions

Vertical and horizontal piping can be changed flexibly. Solenoid valves can also be connected to the desired position.

(2) Unlimited flexibility

Module components not listed in this catalog are also available.

(3) Reduced work-hours

All components are connected as modules, eliminating work such as piping.
